Digital Interview

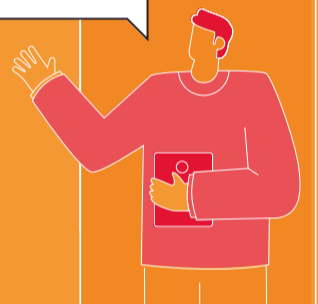

Immerse yourself in this Capgemini experience by answering a series of questions at your own convenience.

We hope you enjoy our unique, digital assessment experience. I am sure you will agree that a CV does not always tell the full story, and we're excited to get to know the real you.

As this might be your first digital interview, we have created a demo...

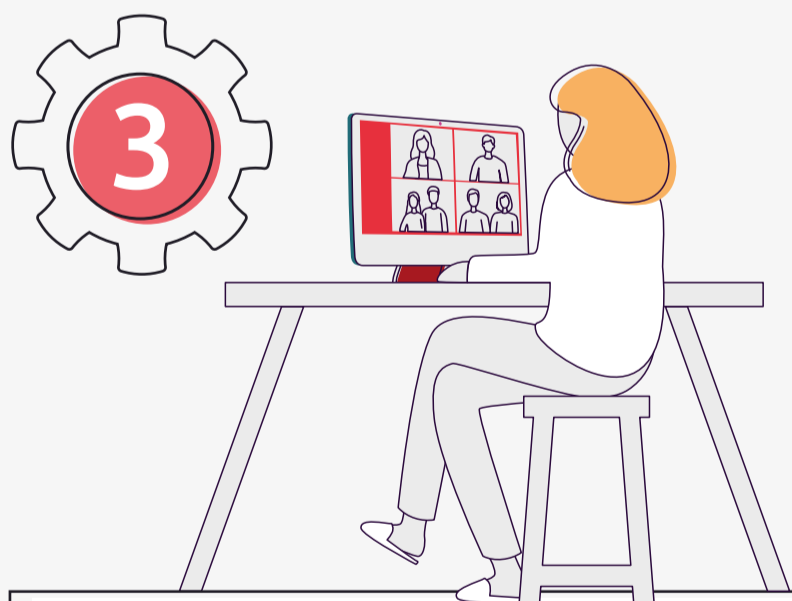

Hi! I'm Ben

Ben, from our Early and Emerging Talent team, shares what to expect.

We include a series of mock digital interview questions.

We won't be watching these so you can relax and hopefully enjoy the experience.

Virtual Assessment Centre

Half-day engaging event consisting of group exercise and 1:1 interviews based around motivation and strengths.

Show and tell us what you want to see and hear.

We don't hire replica individuals, so we want you to be yourself.

You're not competing against anyone else

You'll need to work together to be successful on the day!

We understand that there is little opportunity to speak to someone until you reach assessment centre stage, so if you would like to speak with us please do get in touch...
